GENEALOGY & CHRONOLOGY

PREFACE NOTES

JEWISH YEAR.

The reckoning of the Jewish Year is extremely complicated. – There are however some good descriptions to be found on the Internet.

Look under, ‘Calendars’ on <http://astro.nmsu.edu/~lhuber/leaphist.html>, and under, ‘Jewish Calendar’ on http://www.ortellus.de/kalender/j\_uk.html

Very briefly the Jewish year is comprised of 12 months of either 29 & 30 days, with an extra month added in years, 3,6,8,11,14, 17 & 19, over a nineteen year cycle, plus other leap days.-The beginning of each month is set by the appearance of the New Moon. – It’s very complicated, but its final outcome over 19 years gives them a correct reckoning of time.

BIBLICAL YEAR.

In Biblical times if you were to ask the common people, “How many days in the month, or how many days in the year”? - Rather than go into great detail, they would most likely give the standard simplified answer of a, - “ 30 day month & 360 day year”, just as we don’t go into detail when being asked the number of days in a year. For we would usually say 365, not 365.25, or mention leap years. - So it is that we find in both the Old & New Testament’s, that when a month or year is referred to, it is in the language of the common people, i.e. a 30 day month & a 360 day year. --- Some Scriptural proof that this principle of a 30 day month & 360 day year was used for general purposes throughout the Bible is given at the top of page 6.

TIME SOURCES.

The sources used to arrive at time spans in this study are as follows.

Forward from, - Adam to the Exodus, = Times taken from the Interlinear Apostolic Bible Polyglot.

Backward from, - Crucifixion of Christ to the building of Solomon’s Temple, = Taken from both the N.K.J.V. of the Bible, and Wikipedia Encyclopaedia.

Backward from, - Solomon’s Temple to the Exodus, = Taken by using Wikipedia’s date for Solomon’s reign (970-931) and the Bible reference to the building of the Temple in Solomon’s 4th year , i.e.(967 B.C.) and time spans from the Interlinear Apostolic Bible Polyglot. From these, the period of time between the Exodus, and the building of Solomon’s Temple can be reasonably established. This then supplies a complete chronological sequence from Adam to Christ’s crucifixion and resurrection.

ALTERNATIVE DATES.

The Bible supplies us with fairly accurate and clear time spans from Adam’s creation right through to the Exodus. However, different time spans & dates, can be arrived at by using various English translations of the Scriptures. --- The Septuagint (LXX) was a translation from Hebrew to Greek which was meticulously carried out by 70 carefully chosen Jewish scholars about 250 B.C. - It was a very good translation and was in common use during Christ’s ministry, and was used and quoted from by Christ and His disciples. So, Christ thereby endorsed it, as being the Word of God, and an inspired work. ---Our standard Old Testament omits “Cainan” in the Genealogy record between Arphaxed & Salah, yet Luke quoting from the Septuagint acknowledges him in Luke 3:36.-By doing this Luke is vouching for the Septuagint as the Word of God. - The Greek Christian Church has always retained and upheld the Septuagint LXX. However, until recently, the only complete available translation of the Septuagint direct into English has been the one made by Sir Lancelot C. Lee Brenton (1807 - 1862) published 1851, and updated at Calvin College in May 2000. This however shows a number of errors in its numerals in Genesis Chapt. 5, and other places. For instance the time spans supplied within it would place Methuselah as still being alive 14 years after the flood, but it has recently been revised, and now appears to be quite good.- However, there is now a new word by word translation, by Charles Van der Pool, direct from the LXX Greek, in Greek/English and appears to be more accurate. It is called the Interlinear Apostolic Bible Polyglot, details, available at <http://septuagint-interlinear-greek-bible.com/> Further details regarding the Septuagint, (and other Bible info.) can be found at <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Septuagint> Other English translations of the Septuagint have also just become available, but it would appear that they do not use the LXX as their only source, but in spite of this, they show only some minor time differences to the Apostolic Bible. At the present time, the Apostolic Bible appears to me, to be the most accurate. Hence, this new revision based on the times from that translation.

Of course, unless you believe in, and trust the Scriptures, you will not correctly understand all which follows: There is however good reason to believe in and trust the Scriptures, and if you go to Study # 11 (Bible History & Reliability), you will find all the evidence you need to increase your faith in the Bibles inspiration and reliability.

Archbishop Usher in A.D. 1650 arrived at the date for	Adam's creation as being, 4004 B.C. & the Flood as being, 2348 B.C..
Dates generally arrived at from the Septuagint place	“ “ “ , 5500 B.C. & “ “ “ “ 3300 B.C..
“ “ “ “ “ “ Samaritan Pentateuch	“ “ “ 4300 B.C. & “ “ “ “ 2400 B.C..
My figures as arrived at in my previous study using the N.K.J.V.	“ “ “ 4163 B.C. & “ “ “ “ 2531 B.C.
My figures as arrived at in this study using the Apostolic Bible.	“ “ “ 5525 B.C. & “ “ “ “ 3296 B.C..

The differences in this period of around 4 to 5 ½ thousand years, are the result of errors from copying, translation and interpretation. The fault is man's, not the Bible's: We need to ignore these minor unimportant differences when we look at the overall message of the Bible. The Bible, still remains the reliable accurate Word of God, so long as we look at the whole picture, comparing Scripture with Scripture.

TIME SPANS.

The time spans shown on page 6, are all years starting from the creation of Adam. (Please note; Time spans are from Adam, not the creation of the world).

Times are given as accurately as possible, but allowance needs to be made for the fact that a part of a year given in Scripture is frequently counted as a whole year. In addition, there appears to be some use of rounded numbers, (To the nearest 10, - 100, - & 1000.). It is not always clear when rounded numbers are used.

In order to convert the Old Testament time spans to B.C. dates, we first need a known B.C. date for an Old Testament event. For this we can use the date acknowledged by secular history for the building of Solomon's Temple. The Wikipedia Encyclopaedia gives the date of Solomon's reign as 970-931 B.C., and 1 Kings 6:1., tells us that Solomon began to build the Temple in the second month of his 4th. yr., giving us the year for the building of the Temple as 967 B.C. (The Wikipedia is available @ <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Solomon>

Before we can proceed further I need to point out that there are two main areas within the Scriptures where people tend to make errors in interpreting time spans.

The first is found in 1 Kings 6:1, This tells us that there are 480 (Biblical) years between the Exodus and the building of Solomon's Temple. Now as stated, 1 Kings 6:1 defines this period to be 480 yrs., yet on reading Acts 13: 17-21, we find Paul states the following:

During this period Israel was 40 yrs. In the wilderness. (verse 18)
 “ “ 450 yrs. Under the Judges. (verse 20)
 “ “ 40 yrs. Under King Saul (verse 21)

A total of 530 yrs.

On top of this, we know from 1 Kings 2: 11, that David then reigned 40 yrs., followed by Solomon. We are also told in 1 Kings 6: 1, that Solomon began to build the Temple in the second month of his fourth year of reign. We therefore need to add David's 40 year reign and Solomon's first three years to the above 530 years. This gives us a total of 573 yrs.

The difference between the 480 yrs. of 1 Kings 6: 1., and the 573 years of Acts 13: 17-21 is 93 yrs. - Some would see this as a contradiction or error in Scripture. - The fact is, they are both correct, but are taken from different viewpoints. Paul's figure of 573 yrs., gives us the overall total span as needed for general reckoning. The figure of 480 yrs given in 1 Kings 6: 1., is God's reckoning of time in relation to Israel. What is really meant by this statement is that this was the number of years since the Exodus in which Israel had remained reasonably obedient to God. Unfortunately, Israel frequently rebelled & disobeyed God during that period.

As a result God gave Israel over to other nations and turned His back on Israel during such times. While Israel was out of fellowship with God, & subservient to other Nations God did not count the time. Those periods totalled 93 years in all, and the record of those times can be found in Judges 3: 8,14 / 4: 2,3 / 6: 1 / 13: 1. The 93 years needs to be added to the 480 years in order to give us for our purposes an accurate time span, i.e. 573 Biblical years. - The Exodus therefore occurred 573 Biblical years or 565 Sidereal years before the commencement of Solomon's Temple in 967 B.C. From this, we get the date of the Exodus as 1532 B.C... ( $565 + 967 = 1532$ ).

The 70-week prophecy on page 7 shows the same pattern of God not counting time for Israel during the Church age.

The Second is found in Gal. 3: 16, 17. - This verse refers to a 430-year period. Confusion arises over the starting point for these 430 years. On the surface, it appears that the starting date should be at the giving of the Promise to Abraham when he was 75 years of age, and that the Exodus was 430 years from this date. - This interpretation fails in the light of the following facts.

Isaac was born 25 years after the promise to Abraham, (Gen. 21:5).

Elapsed time = 25 years.

Jacob was born 60 years later, (Gen. 25:26).

“ “ = 60 “

Jacob died aged 147 (Gen. 47: 28) and we are told in (Gen. 47: 7,9,28 & Exod. 12: 40, 41) that the Exodus occurred 430 years from the point 17 years before Jacob's death (his entry into Egypt).  $147 - 17 =$

“ “ = 130 “

Exodus occurs 430 years later.

“ “ = 430 “

(The last 400 Years of the 430 is the period of Egyptian Servitude. (Gen. 15: 13 & Acts 7: 6).)

The total period between the promise to Abraham and the Exodus is therefore

= 645 years

It is therefore obvious that the reference to the 430 years in Gal. 3: 16, 17 is not meant to refer directly to the promise to Abraham as a starting point. This problem is resolved only slightly in the original Greek. I believe that what was meant, is that God was validating the promise to Abraham through the entry of Jacob into Egypt. - This event brought about the first occasion of the 12 tribes united as adults and as the beginning of the promised nation of Israel as per. Gen. 32: 27,28. This was the validation of the promise to Abraham and the start of the 430 years of Gal. 3: 16, 17.

Finally, the 430 years of Gal. 3: 16, 17, is the same as that referred to in Exod. 12: 40, 41., and in Luke 1: 32, 33, you can see how God places great importance on the House of Jacob.

There were 21 generations from Adam to Abraham, - Genesis Chapters 5/ 11/and 16.

There were 14 generations from Abraham to Jesus Christ. - Matthew 1:17.

CREATION

Before going any further on Genealogy we need to take a quick look at the Creation account as found in the Scriptures.

Genesis chapters, 1 & 2 gives us the record of creation. This record was written by Moses as inspired by God around about 4,100 Biblical (Lunar) years after the creation of Adam, (according to the Septuagint), a period of roughly 24 generations. – A lot of the information would have been passed down from father to son orally, until writing started. However, there is now new archaeological evidence showing writing started well before the flood.-

Although some errors could have been passed on to Moses, we must remember that in 2 Tim. 3:16, we read; “All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness”. Therefore, God would have revealed the necessary corrections to Moses prior to his writing of the first five books of the Bible.

Now some say God created everything in six days, and others say millions of years, but what does the Bible say?

Gen. 1: 1,2 shows us that In the beginning God created the Heavens & the Earth. – It does not say when this was, just “In the beginning”, there is no indication as to whether that was a day or a billion years before what follows. So between verses 2 & 3 we have a gap of unknown time.

Gen. 1: 3 on, then gives us the record of God’s six creative acts designed to prepare the heavens & earth for mankind & to place mankind on the earth. Verse 2 states “The earth was without form and void”. , which may also be interpreted to read, “The earth became without form and void”. It is not important as to which interpretation is accepted, but some use the latter to claim that a pre-Adamic race once lived on the earth, however as there was no death before Adam’s sin and Abel was the first human to die, a pre-Adamic race can be ruled out. The Bible tells us that death was a consequence of Adam’s sin (1 Cor. 15: 21,22.). So there was no death before Adam’s sin and therefore no pre-Adamic race. Verse 2 can also be translated as “ But the earth was unseen and unready” I think the latter translation is the more accurate.

Now as to the six acts of preparing the earth for mankind; there is a lot of debate over whether or not the ‘days’ are 24 hr. periods, or lengthy periods of time. To me this is not important. God is all-powerful & is an independent Spirit & has a will of His own. If God wanted to, He could have accomplished all the acts of creation in less than a second or could have taken millions of years for each act. However as Genesis uses the phrase “evening and morning” at the end of each creative act, for this reason many believe that the time spans are indeed 24 hr. periods. However, as Gen. Chapter 2 goes into much more detail of the events of the sixth day including showing that Adam named all the animals and birds before Eve’s creation, the sixth day certainly looks like a period of much longer than 24 hours. Again, I must state; the lengths of these days are not important.

Another area which causes confusion in relation to the time gap between Gen. 1: 2 & Gen. 1: 3, is the brief reference to creation found in Exodus 20:11 & Exodus 31: 17. – These references have as their theme an explanation of the Sabbath, they are not there as an exposition of Creation. They refer to God’s acts in Gen. 1: 7-10 of remodelling the heavens, earth, & sea and filling them with living things; they do not refer to the original act referred to in Gen.1: 1,2. Another problem experienced with the creation account is that Gen. 1:3 states that God created light on the first day, then verses 14 to 18, indicates He made the sun & moon to shine on the earth on the fourth day; this is not a contradiction as light can and does exist without the need of a sun. It is also possible that our sun & moon were included in the original creation of Gen. 1: 1,2, but their light only shone onto the water without penetrating to the earth beneath. – Verses 6-8 indicate God then removed a lot of the water from the earth, creating a heavy water canopy above the earth, giving the earth a misty tropical glasshouse type atmosphere. – Verses 14 -18 reveals that the sun & moon were then visible through the heavily misty sky. – Gen. 2: 5,6, shows that before God made man, the earth was watered by springs and a mist. There was no rain. This climate appears to have continued to Noah’s flood, for we read in Gen. 9: 11-17, that after the flood God gave the rainbow as a sign to all that He would never again cause a world deluge. – This shows that the rainbow was a new thing, and is strongly indicative that there had been no rain prior to the flood.

ADAM TO EXODUS*GENEALOGY AS PER THE INTERLINEAR APOSTOLIC BIBLE --DATES = BIBLICAL or (LUNAR) year = B ----- SIDEREAL (OUR SOLAR CALENDAR) year = S.

Time measurement = Biblical = Standard Biblical year comprising, 12 x 30 day months or 360 days. – For an example compare, Gen. 7: 11, with Gen. 8: 3,4. – The period the Ark was afloat, given as exactly 5 mths., & Gen 7: 24 states this period to be 150 days. (I.e. 30 day mth.). Compare also, Rev. 11: 2, 3. & Rev. 12: 6, 14. + 13: 5, where 1,260 days is said to be 42 Mths. and 3 ½ Years.
Sidereal = Our year of 365.25 days. - To convert Biblical to Sidereal multiply by 0.9856 -- To convert Sidereal to Biblical, divide by 0.9856 -- All times this page taken from creation of Adam.

70 WEEK PROPHECY OF DANIEL 9: 24-27.

Seventy weeks, or literally, 70 x 7s, or 490 years were determined on Daniel's people (Jews), and on Jerusalem, in order to achieve 6 things. --- 1. To finish the transgression. / 2. To make an end of sin. / 3. To make reconciliation for iniquity. / 4. To bring in everlasting righteousness. / 5. To seal up the vision and prophecy. / 6. To anoint the most Holy. John 6:27. John 10: 36. Acts 4:27.

Note; - This prophecy was given specifically to Jews, in reference to Jews and Jerusalem. but still is of great importance to the rest of the world and its people.

The starting date for this prophecy is found in, Dan. 9: 25a. and Neh. 2: 1-11. -- This was the 20th. Year of Artaxerxes 1st. On the 1st. of Nisan (March – April) 445 B.C*. .. This date is vouched for by Wikipedia Encyclopaedias. --- It was the general practice to make such proclamations on the 1st day of each new year, i.e. 1st Nisan

The 70 x 7s are divided into three parts, with a gap of unknown time between the second and third parts. -- First there was 7 x 7s or 49 years. – This was the overall period of the Jews return from exile, the building of the Temple, the City of Jerusalem, and its walls would be rebuilt “in troublesome times”. -Then there was to be a period of 62 x 7s., or 434 years. At the end of which the Messiah the Prince would come as Israel's King. After which the Messiah would be cut off, (crucified), and after that, the Temple would be destroyed. (There will then be a suspension in the counting of time for the Jew because of their rejection of Christ and His Kingdom) (The Jews put on hold.)-When the time of the Gentile church is completed (The Gospel of Grace), the final 7 years will commence. At the beginning of the seven years, the prince of the people who destroyed Jerusalem and the Temple (Prince of Rome) will make a 7 year peace covenant between Israel and the Revived Roman Empire. He will break the covenant after 3 ½ years, and will then set up the Abomination of Desolation. – “Until the end which is determined”, i.e., Christ returns in judgement. Dan. 9:27 and Mat. 24:15.23-31.

The above all concerns the Jews & Jerusalem, but for the Christian we have the promise that we will all be removed (Translated / Raptured), at the commencement of the last 7 year period.

1 Thes. 4: 13-18. & 2 Thes. 2: 1-12.

Jewish time was based on a standard 30 day Mth. - 360 day year, and whenever a year is used in prophecy it is a period of 360 days. Compare Gen. 7:11. & Gen. 8:3, 4. Where 150 days is exactly 5 mths. (5 x 30 = 150) & Rev. 12: 6, 14. = 1,260 days = 3 ½ yrs. ---- The period between 445 B.C. & 32 A.D. is 483 Yrs. Each year comprising 360 days, a total of 173,880 days, and taken from the 1st of Nisan 445 B.C., has been shown by Sir Robert Anderson Q.C. (In his book, 'The Coming Prince') after extensive research and the assistance of the Astronomer Royal in London to culminate on the 6th. April (or 10th of Nisan) 32 A.D. On the very day Christ rode into Jerusalem in fulfilment of the prophecy in Zech. 9:9. ... "Thy King cometh unto thee... riding on an ass...." The same way Solomon was made King in 1 Kings 1: 38-40.

Also read, Luke 19: 38, 44. / Ps: 118: 22-26. --- This was the only time He accepted the title of King. Just 4 days later He was cut off, (Crucified). - After this period of 49 & 434 years, (a total of 483 years.) there was to be a gap of unspecified time before the last seven year period.-- The reason for the gap is that the Jews rejected Christ and His Gospel of the Kingdom, so Christ temporarily put the Jews, and the Gospel of the Kingdom aside. The Jews and time to the Jews was put on hold while Christ instituted, (mainly through Paul) the Gospel of Grace, given mainly to the gentiles. This gospel then to continue until the full number of the gentiles has been saved. - Acts 18:6. / Luke 21: 24. - So God will not count time while the Jews fail to serve their God.( In the same way He did not count the 93 year period during the time of the Judges as mentioned on page4.) However once the Christians are removed at the Rapture of the Church, God will again deal with the Jews and the clock will start ticking once more. The removal of the Church will bring about the conversion of 144,000 Jews. This will start God's prophetic clock again and will signal the commencement of the final seven year period of Daniel's prophecy. - See; Acts 15: 14-16. / Ezek. 21: 25-27. / Ezek. 39: 22. / Hos. 3: 4, 5. / Mat. 24: 29-46. / Luke 21-24, 32 / Rom. 10:3. / Rom. 11: 25-28. / Eph. 3: 5, 6. / Rev. 7: 1-17.

At the commencement of the final 7 years the one known as 'The False Prophet', Leader of apostate Christendom will initiate a 7 year peace pact with Israel and the Revived Roman Empire, and will set himself up as Israel's Messiah. Will initially direct worship to the Beast 'Rev. Roman Empire's leader', but will later direct it to himself, when he breaks the pact in midst of the 7 yrs. The last 3 ½ Yrs. is more specifically known as 'The Time of Jacob's Trouble', during which the Beast will turn on the False Prophet. By the end of this period all Israel will have finally turned in repentance to God, accepting Jesus Christ as their Messiah and Saviour. Christ will then return, (with His Church), to deliver Israel and to Judge the world. He will then establish His Millennial (Thousand Years) Kingdom.

ETERNITY      Rev. 21 & 22

Satan & his angels released for a brief period together with the resurrected ungodly of all ages. In which time they will make one final, but unsuccessful effort to overthrow Christ & His Kingdom. This time is used of God to prove that these people, even when given the opportunity - to see Christ & choose good, will still choose evil.

 Satan’s army defeated; - Satan sent to Hell.

NOTES

In the first three chapters of Revelation the ‘church’ is mentioned 19 times. – These chapters deal with the period before the Tribulation. Chapters 4 & 5 have no mention of the Church, for they deal with the time of Johns translation into Christ’s presence in Heaven. (A type of the Rapture). Chapter 6, commences the Tribulation, and there is no further mention of the church till the last chapter which deals with periods both before and after the Tribulation.
 The saved believers hold the Testimony of Jesus. – The Testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy. - Rev. 19: 10b.
 Christ is the Spirit of Prophecy, and vice versa. – To reject The Word’s Prophecy is to reject Christ. This is why so many churches today are dead.
 Christ tarries only; - not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. -- 2 Pet. 3: 3-15.
 A Command. -- Rev. 22: 10.
 A Promise of Blessing. -- Rev. 1: 3. & Rev. 22: 7.

CHRONOLOGY OF IMPORTANT PEOPLE & EVENTS

Dates B.C. are compiled by converting the calculated time spans backwards from the known date of the building of Solomon's Temple and the known time span between the temple and the Exodus, to the creation of Adam. Wikipedia (and other sources) give us the dates for Solomon's reign. The Bible tells us in 1 Kings 6: 1. that Solomon commenced the building of the Temple in the fourth year of his reign. --- All dates marked with * i.e. (970*) are dates as found in the Wikipedia Encyclopaedia.
